

Soul Tribulation

Tribulation

Like sheep you just follow your Sheppard, I mock you as I speak
I desecrate the meaning of the Holy book, abomination of God
Feel my rage coming from my inner chasm, filled with demons crying
The need to kill and to devastate this holy place, the need to rape your minds

Bring havoc upon the earth
And power to the ones of the upcoming tribulation
Eerie feelings touch the souls of mortals
Masters of chaos rule!

So blind, ignorant people, living a pure lie
Different beliefs on different locations, too blind for what is true
I spit on your false "Path of righteousness", blasphemy is the only way
Burning priest, you're not so holy now
A whole race gone mad

Bring havoc upon the earth
And power to the ones of the upcoming tribulation
Eerie feelings touch the souls of mortals
Masters of chaos rule again!

Like sheep you just follow your Sheppard, I mock you as I speak
I desecrate the meaning of the Holy book, abomination of God
Feel my rage coming from my inner chasm, filled with demons crying
The need to kill and to devastate this holy place, the need to rape your minds

Bring havoc upon the earth
And power to the ones of the upcoming tribulation
Eerie feelings touch the souls of mortals
Masters of chaos rule once more!
