

Tainted Skies

Tribulation

Drowning in the twilight once more
Waiting for the tides offshore
Let me crawl from your uterus
You're the one that I adore
Let me fall from your underworld
Let me rise from your sore

When the master shakes the heavens
When the luminaries hide
We call upon the absolute
Tainted skies
When the wind repeats the motion
And the raging sea abides
We gaze upon the shadows
In a tainted sky

Pending with the grains beneath the soil
Awaiting to repeat this mortal coil
I'm your seed, I'm your progeny
I'm the one you were before
I'm dying to be born
And to thrive again once more

When the master shakes the heavens
When the luminaries hide
We call upon the absolute
Tainted skies
When the wind repeats the motion
And the raging sea abides
We gaze upon the shadows
In a tainted sky

When the master shakes the heavens
When the luminaries hide
We call upon the absolute
Tainted skies
When the wind repeats the motion
And the raging sea abides
We gaze upon the shadows
In a tainted sky
