

Time & the Vivid Ore

Tribulation

Echoes of the world we devour
And spew it out into the fire
Now let us wither away

The curse and vivid endeavors
Lead us now and forever
It's like the fever in a dream
It's just a sliver of time

In the age of vivid ore
Time
Reverberates forevermore
Hours
Repeat the everlasting pace
Time
And the burning vivid ore

Staring into a mirror untrue
The reflection never follows
The figuration that we drew

Turning with a mechanical release
Rotating now and forever
Like the fever in our dreams
It's just a fracture in time

In the age of vivid ore
Time
Reverberates forevermore
Hours
Repeat the everlasting pace
Time
And the burning vivid ore

Time
Breed the age of vivid ore
Time
Reverberates forevermore
Hours
Repeats the everlasting pace
Time
Turn us now and forever
In the age of vivid ore
