

Strong Woman

Trick Daddy

We hustlin', workin 9 to 5
We struglin, work hard and I'll sleep later, gotta get that paper to take care of my babies.
Ladies when are we gonna get some help. We been holdin down our house all by ourselves. So men it's time to do ya'll thing and take your place as king so we can shine together. What you know bout a strong woman? A strong woman a hard working woman, a pr oud woman but not just any woman, a proud woman, a hard workin woman. A strong woman.

Let's do a song for the strong black women. The ones that birth ed and mother our children. The ones that struggle but somehow m anage. Baby mommas with daddys that do nothin for em. The kids t he bills, she do it on her own. Now she aint got much but aint nothing like your own. She independant aint dependant on na'll nigga. The hell witcha she'll feed her own damn children. Too m any stings attached, she too busy dealin wit this, she can't be dealin with that. I guess the checks stop once the sex stops.
Then you promise your kids a lot but I guess not.

A good example of a strong black woman is my momma boy I love t hat woman. She took care of us, raised us all by herself hardly there but she was there for us, so every mother's day she get to go out n brag to her friends, My oldest son bought me this. c uz it coulda been worse besides I remember the tears in her eye s when we got hut. yeah. And I remember bein broke but somehow we pulled thru. All this cuz of you. This one for you ma thank you ma for bein strong and doin it all on your own woman.
