Why They Jock

Trick Daddy

If it weren't for the haters, I would've never made it
We the new squad, DS-Ka we are the DR
Murk Camp, Daddy Dollars

Had to grind from the bottom all the way to the top
I swear I won't flop, give it all I got
I know why they jock, I know why they jock
I know why they jock, I know why they jock

Yes sir, they wanna see us come up, and we came up
Ha-ha, haters
I know why they jock, I know why they jock
I know why they jock, I know why they jock

See, we came a long way from food stamps
And to thank God I made it
But I'm still dealing with my haters
Eight albums later

See I'm the Daddy Dollars
You just a big trick
You do more buying and begging
And that's that bullshit

I'm still strictly for the clubs
And they can't pimp me and they can stick me
'Cause they can't get me on their poles

This is the hater nation
I've learned to accept the phases
Not to feed into the sickness
Tryin' to hate the hater

You can't go rob a robber
Out drink a alcoholic
And you can never break a banker
That's the crazy way of thinkin'

Look, they drinkin' haterade
And they poppin' hater pills
They worryin' about a nigga
That's why they take to they hills

Had to grind from the bottom all the way to the top
I swear I won't flop, give it all I got
I know why they jock, I know why they jock
I know why they jock, I know why they jock

Yes sir, they wanna see us come up, and we came up
Ha-ha, haters
I know why they jock, I know why they jock
I know why they jock, I know why they jock

Hey, they said I would never be nothing
But now I'm all that
Goin' around and buyin' all the iceberg
That nigga they be talkin' about

They dirty my name
We'll be in all type of beef
I'm the richest, brokest, selfless skillet
That they ever seen

And I mean that I'm good
They watchin', and that's great
Two shows in one day
All for one mixed tape

Look at U2, they sold out
I holler "hold up"
And them ho's floppin'
Might be 'cause I'm so young in a old car

My diamonds gleamin'
That fruity got me leanin'
With a couple thousand stuff
In these new Laguna Beaches

That's probably why they wanna buy
My name's been in they mouth
Ever since the day I said
"Mother fuck the other side"

Had to grind from the bottom all the way to the top
I swear I won't flop, give it all I got
I know why they jock, I know why they jock
I know why they jock, I know why they jock

Yes sir, they wanna see us come up, and we came up
Ha-ha, haters
I know why they jock, I know why they jock
I know why they jock, I know why they jock

When I first entered the game, I was a non-restricted freak
That's right, never nominated, but they ain't hatin' me still Yo, hottest scene, come and go
One hit, hit 'em up, two videos, and let 'em go

What do the future hold? Man, I don't know
I just do it, keep it hood and clean for the radio
Keep on my hater shades, blocking out they hater ways
And keep gettin' paid, while I'm broke, haters hate

I leave 'em, cap bill low sugar
Gettin' paid written just four word 'bout a nigga
If you jock me now, you hate me later
If you tryna stop me now, can only make me greater

Had to grind from the bottom all the way to the top
I swear I won't flop, give it all I got
I know why they jock, I know why they jock
I know why they jock, I know why they jock

Yes sir, they wanna see us come up, and we came up
Ha-ha, haters
I know why they jock, I know why they jock
I know why they jock, I know why they jock

Had to grind from the bottom all the way to the top
I know why they jock, I know why they jock

I know why they jock, I know why they jock
