

Knocked Out

Trijntje Oosterhuis

Shut down, when I saw the look in your eyes
I didn't see it coming baby,
Knocked out, when you told me you needed time
To see if I would miss you maybe
You never told me that you felt this way, not today
You let me know that there's no other way, what can I say
I'm knocked out, now you wanna do it alone
I can't believe what just happened in here

You promised me that you would never ever leave me alone
That no one could replace me
You told me you'd forgive me and forget the things I did wrong
Cause that's how much you loved me
Pushed me away, what is going on?
Don't tell me lies, something here is wrong
Honestly my love, this is not the time to give up, no
No, it's not the time, not the time

Touch down, when I see the look in your eyes
How long have you been faking baby?
Knocked out, when did you start living a lie?
You should have tried a little harder maybe
I never guessed that you would walk away, not today
I would have thought that we could find a way and make that change
Knocked out, so you're gonna do it alone, no
I can't believe what just happened to me

You promised me that you would never ever leave me alone
That no one could replace me
You told me you'd forgive me and forget the things I did wrong
Cause that's how much you loved me
Pushed me away, what is going on?
Don't tell me lies, something here is wrong
Honestly my love, this is not the time to give up, oh

This is not the time,
This is not the time to give up, hey
Try a little harder baby,
This is not the time

(So wrong, so wrong) So wrong to walk away, walk away, so wrong
(So wrong, so wrong) Try a little harder baby, try a little harder baby
(So wrong, so wrong) It's so wrong, it's so wrong, it's so wrong
(So long, so long)
