

Who'll Speak For Love

Trijntje Oosterhuis

Who'll speak for love
Be a true defender
Of all it's pain and splendor
Of ties that bind
Hearts over mind
And who will say that
Love is good
Love is kind
Who'll speak for love
Understands that feelin'
When your desire comes stealin'
Out of the blue
Running you through
And who will say that
Love is strong
Love is true
And who will fight for love
See everyone has failed
Lovers in the past
But if we face the truth
What we have can last
Who'll speak for love
Well here's my confession
You are my pure obsession
I will not live without you
For everything about you
Speaks for love
And who will say that
Love is strong

Love is true
And who will fight for love
See everyone has failed
Lovers in the past
But if we face the truth
What we have can last
Who'll speak for love
Well here's my confession
You are my pure obsession
I will not live without you
For everything about you
Speaks for love
