

Here I stand I must admit that I've never been
In a situation quite like this
So, please excuse me if I seem to be a little confused
Or somewhat uncomfortable
No one ever likes to admit when they've been wrong
I never claimed that I was perfect

You always have complained I could never open up
What would it take
I'll do anything to keep from losing you

I try to reason with you
Nothing seems to get through
You treat me like a stranger
I don't know who you are
I try to reason with you
Nothing seems to get through
I'm begging you
Don't turn away

I never thought that I would be standing here
In such a vulnerable position
It's not even a guarantee that no matter what I say
Would bring you back to me
It's just the thought of you being happier with someone else
Kills me inside

You always have complained I could never open up
What would it take
I'll do anything to keep from losing you

I try to reason with you
Nothing seems to get through
You treat me like a stranger
I don't know who you are
I try to reason with you
Nothing seems to get through
How could you just turn away

Why won't you respond
Why won't you respond
Why won't you respond
Do you feel anything

I try to reason with you
Nothing seems to get through
You treat me like a stranger
I don't know who you are
I try to reason with you
Nothing seems to get through
You treat me like a stranger
I don't know who you are
