

Feed Me Lies

Trina

You say that you love me
You'll never leave me
It's not that you don't want me
It's more like you need me
It sounds so smooth and so sweet
And it goes down easy
All of these things just to keep me in your life
Oh yeah, you feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies

You say a lot of things that don't never stick
If I described you, many words I can pick
Nothing to brag about
This affair done, over
I'm tired of compromising, done deal, it's over
Eventually my heart breaks
Something you can't repair
So what am I stickin 'round for?
'Cause really, there's no love here (No love here)
This relationship was built on a lie
My choir singing Mary J, "I'm Not Gonna Cry"

All the things that I did wrong, I apologized and you know that
Even when you said "Get gone", I turned around and I come back
And every time you throwed a lie, I catch 'em all running back
And now it's time I fumble and consider you a throw back

You say that you love me
You'll never leave me
It's not that you don't want me
It's more like you need me
It sounds so smooth and so sweet and it goes down easy
All of these things just to keep me in your life

Oh yeah, you feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies

Oh, she's just a good friend and she was just a class mate
She just your sisters friend, now you comin' from work late
Now I'm seein' this make up and lipstick on your collar
I already know the truth, save the lies, why bother

While you be gettin' your groove on, I'm sittin' home bein' house wife
You claim that you tired of being a player and you gon' do right
But all those lies busted and sooner, later they catch up
You say you'll never do it again, then turn right around and mess up

All the things that I did wrong, I apologized and you know that
Even when you said "Get gone", I turned around and I come back
And every time you throwed a lie, I catch 'em all running back
And now it's time I fumble and consider you a throw back

You say that you love me

You'll never leave me
It's not that you don't want me
It's more like you need me
It sounds so smooth and so sweet and it goes down easy
All of these things just to keep me in your life

Oh yeah, you feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies

No I'm not gon' cry
I'm just gon' let it burn, let it go
I'm not gon' sweat it, yeah
You played a lot of games, I feel like I regret it
Giving all my heart to someone who wasn't ready
You were all I needed, don't stop me 'cause I'm leaving
How you claim you love me?
But I catch you cheatin'
I thought I was so lucky
But now I see no reason
So now I send you back
To all them broads you pleasin'

You say that you love me
You'll never leave me
It's not that you don't want me
It's more like you need me
It sounds so smooth and so sweet
And it goes down easy
All of these things just to keep me in your life
Oh yeah, you feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies
Go on and feed me your lies
