

INSECURE

Trina

I'm not used to dealing with a bitch
Get over it
You assume
I'm always up to some
No reason not to trust me
See, yeah now you're annoying me
Passive aggression you're showing me
Point the blame
Why you throwing all ya' shade
Come say it to my face so

If you got a problem
Come see me about it
I know the problem
I think you're insecure
If you got a problem
And don't say shit about it
Then I know the problem
The only problem is you, you, you, you uh
You, you, you, you uh
The only problem is you, you, you, you uh
Yeah, you got a problem
I think you're insecure
I think you're insecure

I've tried
To put me in ya shoes
But you got some issues boy
Will you stay
Or keep on complainin'?
Or get out my way boy
See, yeah now you're annoying me
Passive aggression you're showing me
Point the blame
Why you throwing all ya' shade
Just say it to my face so

If you got a problem
Come see me about it
I know the problem
I think you're insecure
If you got a problem
And don't say shit about it
Then I know the problem
The only problem is you, you, you, you uh
You, you, you, you uh
The only problem is you, you, you, you uh
Yeah, you got a problem

Shut your mouth
How many times do you think I wanna hear you say?
Give me another chance
Fuck this bad romance

Trina, fuck boy, what you think this is?

Must be out ya' mind
Is you dumb stop playin' wit me
Spendin' time scrollin'down timelines
On the next bitch live
Should be watching what you be saying to me
Going through my phone that's lame to me
How you do me wrong and blaming me?
Me and you in the spot was the place to be
Now you so insecure it's a shame to see
Speak up, say it with yo' chest
Better go cry to ya' momma
I ain't dealing with no stress
Flights over feelings always land into a check
You stuck in ya' head, now you missed out on the best, damm

If you got a problem
Come see me about it
I know the problem
If you got a problem
