

Gave Ya

Trinidad Cardona

Say you wanted love
So that's what I gave ya
Say you wanted time
So that's what I gave ya
Say you want more from me
You need to be patient
Say you need space sometimes
So let me not waste it

Say you wanted love
So that's what I gave ya
Say you wanted time
So that's what I gave ya
Say you want more from me
You need to be patient
I gave you all I had to give
So baby don't waste it

Gave ya my heart, but it
Wasn't enough
You and your selfish ways
I know this ain't love
I know it gets hard sometimes
Gotta stay tough
If you wanna ease your mind
Just hit me up

Call me when you wake up
Facetime, give a fuck bout your makeup
Yeah, no time for the fake love
Who the fuck said something about a breakup
You don't hit me everyday no more
Baby do you even care no more
You can't take me for a fool no more
When you look me in the face I'm sure

(Look me in the face I'm sure
You the one worth waiting for
When we fight we can go to war
But at the end of the day I'm yours)

Say you wanted love
So that's what I gave ya
Say you wanted time
So that's what I gave ya
Say you want more from me
You need to be patient
Say you need space sometimes
So let me not waste it

Say you wanted love
Say you wanted time
So that's what I gave ya
Say you want more from me
You need to be patient
I gave you all I had to give

So baby don't waste it

Gave ya my heart, but it
Wasn't enough
Gotta stay tough
Just hit me up

(Hit me up, hit me up
Hit me up, hit me up)
