Oh yeah, rose from the...
Yeah, yeah, okay

Does it even matter if he rose from the grave?
Or is all we've been told really fake?
Ayy, the other day my bro said he just not sold
It's a myth they told to the slaves
A parable from them olden days
And maybe I'm just going through a phase
Yeah, if the facts don't hold I'll roll
But if he rose, he should hold center stage
Maybe they just been spinning tales
Bout babies and mangers and silly veils
Bout spirits to keep us all really frail
Like "be pious and pity them infidels"
Yeah, if it's fake we should really bail
But peel the scales from your eyes and fill the braille
Is he buried somewhere, can we really tell?
Or is he living water from living wells?
I don't know why this world feels so cold
Or why justice feels so slow
Or why they treat my folk so low
Or why you gotta walk the right path so solo
Followed by foes
But I do know if that stone really rolled
Two thousand years ago
Every inch of the globe should be shaped in his mold
All I know

All I know He got up
Not much hope around us
Don't know who can I trust, I trust
Don't know
All I know He got up
Not much hope around us
Don't know who can I trust

Ay I don't get
Why we act like he ain't so legit
Sometimes he's hard to follow, I know he is
We falling like foliage
So when it's hard, can't just bounce like we over it
For so long
The world got us feeling like
Can his word apply to my life? This is silly right?
All I've known is truth kept me in the fight
Walk in light through the night
I call him hero, I know really that's bold
But if he got up, he really that cold
He fought death and won it, appeared to five hundred real people
So I guess I'm sold
Ayy, wait, why do wars break out? I don't know
Why do I keep wrestling with doubt? I don't know
What is revelation really bout?
I know I ain't gotta have it all figured out

All I know He got up

Not much hope around us
Don't know who can I trust, I trust
Don't know
All I know He got up
Not much hope around us
Don't know who can I trust
He's undefeated
He's undefeated
He's undefeated
He's undefeated
Against all foes
He's undefeated
Against all woes
He's undefeated
Against all blows
He's undefeated

Trials look different when seen from a distance
I'm way up high, I been free from my prison
We been invited to freedom, don't miss it
I seen the light, I received my commission
I got new eyes and a brand new prescription
Can't be forgetting that I've been forgiven
Death thought he won and the next thing, flash
Found he wrote a check that his strength couldn't cash
Only took full days, could his weak reign last
I guess life come at you fast
Savior beat death way too bad, we just laugh
He won the victory, we talking trash
Darkness ain't it to me, I gotta pass
Death can't be king, left his sting in the past
Got out the grave and he pushed sin right in
No more fighting, my Lord won, I win
If death and its rope couldn't tie down hope
Then when folks ask am I finna fold, it's "Nope"

All I know He got up
Not much hope around us
Don't know who can I trust, I trust
Don't know
All I know He got up
Not much hope around us
Don't know who can I trust
He's undefeated
He's undefeated
He's undefeated
He's undefeated
Against all foes
He's undefeated
Against all woes
He's undefeated
Against all blows
He's undefeated
