Ever Since.

Triple One

She wanna sign a poster, so I fuck her like I know her
Got it in the boot, but stay creeping till I blow up
Drink until I die, got them brews up in the rover
You's a fucking bitch, we stay mutts like it ain't over
Ratty with my hair, you too happy even care
Staying sets with couple chairs, still an addict to the bend
Sleeping in the grass, so see she left me with my heart
Guess I'll die another day, guess that future gotta wait

Ever since I had the evidence
You ain't even fin'a check the shit
I been up, up in my room with the pen n ink
You fuckers just praying for severance
It's li-like death to em all, if you let em in
Burning that bridge with a candle bitch
I've been cu-cut with a hot you can't handle it
You fuckers just praying for severance, ill...

Smile to myself and walk
I don't ever flinch when you stare and talk
You fin'a get bought but I'm married to my thoughts
Your bodies intact but your minds divorced
So ya feel confident please don't young sport
Cross my path, you will get caught
Everything my voice touch, can't help head bang
Everything my hands grasp, turn gold loo fang
How did you become so irrelevant?
I'm in a room and its full up with elephants
Focusing my one elevens
You know it's my time - so just let me in Running this shit with such elegance
Holding your hand out I'll put nothing in it
You'll weather away like the elements
Don't blink for a second; we'll take you away

Ever since I had the evidence
You ain't even fin'a check the shit
I been up, up in my room with the pen n ink
You fuckers just praying for severance
It's li-like death to em all, if you let em in
Burning that bridge with a candle bitch
I've been cu-cut with a hot you can't handle it
You fuckers just praying for severance, ill...

You's a fuck up need'a call it off
Sick of fuckers try'na talk about
See you running when the penny drop
Shut a mouth you keep talking out
Takes one line make you disappear
Up the back with a lazy beer
Settle down, need'a talk a bit
Walking blind for the horse of it
I am cold man, I have no soul man
Drink all day just to lie to the ocean
Tell me I'm lying, I know this
You walked in, didn't think I would notice
You been pushing that olden

Still don't know why but they thinking its golden
I am cold man, I have no soul man

Ever since I had the evidence
You ain't even fin'a check the shit
I been up, up in my room with the pen n ink
You fuckers just praying for severance
It's li-like death to em all, if you let em in
Burning that bridge with a candle bitch
I've been cu-cut with a hot you can't handle it
You fuckers just praying for severance, ill...
