Triple One

Put it to the side and you set it on me
Selling me your lies but I take them for free
7 butterflies but they flutter by me
Demon in disguise but you're trusting in me

I'm Living in foresight
Wish upon my grave
That if I get penance I can live upon peace
If I do it for my brethren then maybe I'll sleep
Hope my death don't wake none
Do it OT
Wish upon, upon a wishing well
Give 'em hope, hope they give me hell
Fuck the world I get any means
And if I get myself, I guess it's meant to be Any single fucking way you put it
Ima Kick the mutt with no disrespect
And if it takes the bite to bite the fucking bullet
I'mma chew it up and then I spit the lead
Hold me for the night, if I cry give me inner thighs
Fucking up my high, that's alright I'm a satellite
And it's never done, ain't a bitch
Do it one on one
Saw the mutt fleeing from the scene, it's a hit and run
So say it ain't so or I'm folding
I've been keeping eyes low but they all in
It's a all black suicide, rep it til I die
I'm the messenger, semper fi
Look me in the eyes aye

Put it to the side and you set it on me
Selling me your lies but I take them for free
7 butterflies but they flutter by me
Demon in disguise but you're trusting in me

These people be so fraudulent, Drop me like I'm porcelain
Never put my wages on the fact that you can trust again
Lying with no benefit, Disguise it for your excellence
Let's peddle back to places when you didn't hold this prejudice
Inside, hurt a bit less when I binge right
Tell the car stop to the ring side
We e-light but deep down we G right
Hide feelings different places, bleach the blood up off my laces
I might kick em back to earth, To you I'm motherfucking faceless
Can't do clean cut
Clinical mind when I breach cat not like this before
Kicking all fours let her break the wall-
She got that game I can't ignore
Sippin on lagers, King Authur
Tryna get larger like my father
Took off this armour baby wreckin' up my karma
Forsaken, why you treat me like a pagan
Yes I slipped up you can't trust me with this substance overtaking
Over nothing worth discussin' with my friends or even family
And yes I got ability in bringing forth your mystery
So say goodbye to the one that you never really let in Bathing in the salt of my obsession let it set in

Pickin' at my brain I can't lose faith again
I don't want no fake, play this tape while I'm vacant

Put it to the side and you set it on me
Selling me your lies but I take them for free
7 butterflies but they flutter by me
Demon in disguise but you're trusting in me

But you're trusting in me
