I can tell, yeah I can tell
You been scarred too deep, I can tell

Wrapped in all your love for nothing
Ride or die, and ride a wire for nothing
All year gone and on your own for stunting
Say you ain't been worried, bitch you fronting
I ain't worried 'bout you bitch, ayy
I ain't worried 'bout you bitch, oh
I ain't worried 'bout you bitch, ayy
I ain't worried 'bout you bitch, no

I don't get it
Said I'm right at home when I'm in it
It's been a minute
Said she home alone like come get it
Man I'm all alone on these missions
But you don't understand
Tryna get to these bands and I'm nothing like your mans
Baby girl there's a difference
I could probably change your whole life in one minute
If it feel right come hop in my Benz
Tell me if you love me, I don't do pretend friends
I did it before, I won't do it again
Tell me that she hate me, yeah yeah, I'm off a xan
Tell me that she want to try one, go Peter Pan
I'ma hop right out the car, all of the water, I think I need land, ooh
Fucked a lil thot, I'm star, I'm fuckin' a star, just send the ho plans
Know that you wanna go far, baby girl grab my hand
Told you from the start you can't ride without no bands
Listen me, you cannot bring no green racks or no xans
Christmas tree, light him up then wrap him in saran
Baby be with me, we can go venture these foreign lands
Believe in me
You always leaving me
Rolled up, Maserati doors up
Wrist froze up, all y'all bitches chose up

You been scarred too deep, I can tell
I can tell, yeah I can tell
You been scarred too deep, I can tell
I can tell, yeah I can tell
You been scarred too deep, I can tell
I can tell, yeah I can tell
You been scarred too deep, I can tell
I can tell, yeah I can tell

Baby what's the hold up

I tried to hold it down

Baby what's the hold up
