

It Takes Time

Trippie Redd

You know time is of the essence
Yeah I tried lil baby
Put your feelings to the side lil baby
You got too much pride lil baby
I ain't have time yesterday
But today I got time lil baby
'Cause you been up on my mind lil baby
I really think you mines lil baby
I hope you shine lil baby
But this shit takes time lil baby
This shit takes time lil baby, yeah

You know time is of the essence
Girl you gotta be patient, you gotta be patient
You know time is of the essence
Girl you gotta be patient, you gotta be patient
Time is of the essence, you know time is of the essence
Yeah you gotta be patient, time is of the essence
Girl you gotta be patient, you gotta be patient

Don't got time for a ho
I'm on the grind lil ho
Sippin' wine lil ho
Yeah I'm doing all these shows
Blowing dough with some hoes
Got some good Act to pour, yeah murder what she wrote
And you know I took her soul
I always take her soul
Love scars woe
Baby love scars woe
Baby hurt to the bone, yeah hurt to the bone
I got your bitch hitting my phone
She want the dick on the low
Yeah I thought you should know
Said I thought you should know
Run my whole fucking hood like a pope
Yeah murder what she wrote
I said murder what she wrote
'Cause you know I took her soul
Yeah you know I took her soul
You know I took her soul
But I won't be hittin' phones

You know time is of the essence
Yeah I tried lil baby
Put your feelings to the side lil baby
You got too much pride lil baby
I ain't have time yesterday
But today I got time lil baby
'Cause you been up on my mind lil baby
I really think you mines lil baby
I hope you shine lil baby
But this shit takes time lil baby
This shit takes time lil baby, yeah

You know time is of the essence
Girl you gotta be patient, you gotta be patient

You know time is of the essence
Girl you gotta be patient, you gotta be patient
Time is of the essence, you know time is of the essence
Yeah you gotta be patient, time is of the essence
Girl you gotta be patient, you gotta be patient

Hundred bands on a coupe
Hundred bands on a coupe
And I just lost the roof
Play a bitch like a flute
Yeah you niggas hella poop
I'm sending shots at your crew
Nigga pow-pow-pow-pow
Yeah shoot a bitch down
See me 'round, see me pow
And I'm shooting AKs
SK, RPK, HK
Young nigga I aim it at your face
To the moon, I'm in space
Yeah I just bought my mom a new Wraith
Thanking god for a brand new day
And I'm on the road, I'm just thinking 'bout your face
I'm just thinking 'bout your face
Thinking 'bout your face, I been thinking 'bout your face

You know time is of the essence
Yeah I tried lil baby
Put your feelings to the side lil baby
You got too much pride lil baby
I ain't have time yesterday
But today I got time lil baby
'Cause you been up on my mind lil baby
I really think you mines lil baby
I hope you shine lil baby
But this shit takes time lil baby
This shit takes time lil baby, yeah

You know time is of the essence
Girl you gotta be patient, you gotta be patient
You know time is of the essence
Girl you gotta be patient, you gotta be patient
Time is of the essence, you know time is of the essence
Yeah you gotta be patient, time is of the essence
Girl you gotta be patient, you gotta be patient

Hundred bands on a coupe
Hundred bands on a coupe
Hundred bands on a coupe
Hundred bands on a coupe
