

Skeletons

Trippie Redd

You haven't been good for long
Is it the sound of your own thoughts
That always keeps you up at night?
Maybe it's time to say goodbye
'Cause I'm getting pretty fucking tired

Show me the way you went
Fly through the hardest winds
Run 'til I find the end
Truly a heaven-sent (Way)
The closet got skeletons
Bae, where the hell you went? (Where you been?)
Until my last breath, won't quit
I just gotta feel your skin

Ah, ah, ah
Ah, ah, ah
Feel your skin
Feel your skin
Love you again (Love you again, love you again)

Show me the way you went
Fly through the hardest winds
Run 'til I find the end
Truly a heaven-sent (Way)
The closet got skeletons
Bae, where the hell you went? (Where you been?)
Until my last breath, won't quit
I just gotta feel your skin

Hey, I'm kinda glad you didn't pick up
I kinda just called to hear your voice
So, your voice recording was enough
Ugh, I should hang up, what am I doing? Um
So, I've, I feel kind of dumb, but, uh, I miss you

And then the end (And then the end, uh)
And then the end comes (Uh), and then the end comes
And then the end comes, and then the end comes
And then the end comes, and then the end
And then the end comes, and then the end comes
And then the end comes, and then the end comes
And then the end comes, and then the end comes
And then the end comes, and then the end
