

Wind

Trippie Redd

Yeah-yeah, yeah
When the trees fall on me
And the wind starts to howling out

As you walked out, I cried tears, you didn't care
I forgave you, just so you could do it all again
Yes, I love you, I wanna hate you, but I just can't
And I lost you, but you're still here, just with him
Why'd you lie about change?
Why'd you tell me that it's different now? It's the same
I can't believe that I stayed
Now I have to sleep alone again in the bed you made

I watched your house turn to flames
Spark it up and burn it down
Now, how?
After everything we gave
Still somehow there's no place I'd rather be in (Be in love)

Keep it together, we will never change
Lookin' to marry you, might know your name
You in the ground, no one in the safe
Might throw the towel, I might end the game
I'm lookin' down on my enemies (In my heart)
Look at me now, are you entertained? (In your heart)
Why would I take you back now?
Don't know what I'd gain
Love or lie

You got me hurtin', I don't deserve this
I gave you everything, and still ain't workin'
Where do I start? Do I begin?
We was so close that we was twins
Thought that we would never ever end
But I guess this shit was all pretend
3AM, yeah, stars in the roof
But you're the only one that's still lightin' me up
Now that I run up my hands and I'm hatin' the fact that I'm loosin' your touch
Loose your touch
I might put all of my pain up in this blunt, yeah

I watched your house turn to flames
Spark it up and burn it down
Now, how?
After everything we gave
Still somehow there's no place I'd rather be in (Be in love)

Keep it together, we will never change
Lookin' to marry you, might know your name
You in the ground, no one in the safe
Might throw the towel, I might end the game
I'm lookin' down on my enemies (In my heart)
Look at me now, are you entertained? (In your heart)
Why would I take you back now?
Don't know what I'd gain
Love or lie
