

Burn

Tristram

Watch me burn, way up high
You can never hide, I see it all
As you watch me rise and watch me fall
Loving stare, if you find it bright
There's some shade down there where you can hide
But I promise you I'm on your side

In the light, doesn't have to be so scary
Bright, let the warmth hit you so gently
I hope you know you're gonna be okay

You think it's you and I but it's only you
You think it's you and I but it's only you

Quiet wind, whispers in your hair
There's a peace inside that's always there
Where the chaos meets the tempered snare

In the light, doesn't have to be so scary
Bright, when the warmth hits you so gently
I never meant to make you run away

You think it's you and I but it's only you
You think it's you and I but it's only you
You think it's you and I but it's only you
You think it's you and I but it's only you

It's only...

You think it's you and I but it's only you
You think it's you and I but it's only you
You think it's you and I but it's only you
You think it's you and I but it's only you
