

Mistake

Tristram

Oh enough enough
Oh enough enough

Criticize
I can't escape the fire
Even my best is pale, it's not enough for you
Redefine
I would erase the fire
Never to face the fact that I've been hurt by you

Every time we fall
Interrupt and it ceases
Floating outside your door
We can dance when it's all-electric
Sparring blind in your fires hectic
Everything now has fallen
It's everything that you wanted
Everything that you wanted

You love to tell me when I make a mistake, while you know
I stumble trip and fall the more than you blame, you shame
Our love is broken like a bone that you break, and it shows
To stay so long has been my greatest mistake

Oh enough enough
Oh enough enough

No disguise
It can be so revealing
If I betrayed myself, it's not because of you
In your eyes
I can't escape the feeling
Nowhere to place in time a way to see it through

Every time we fall
Interrupt and it ceases
Floating outside your door
We can dance when it's all-electric
Sparring blind in your fires hectic
Everything now has fallen
It's everything that you wanted
Everything that you wanted

You love to tell me when I make a mistake, while you know
I stumble trip and fall the more than you blame, you shame
Our love is broken like a bone that you break, and it shows
To stay so long has been my greatest mistake

Because we've gone too far
Just enough so we lost who we are
I'll remember you by all the scars
When I come back to me

I will learn, I will know
Nothing hurts from which I cannot grow
Since the pain, has a way
It's deceiving, but I know I'll be ok
