

Hung Up

Tritonal

Touched my skin and left your mark
You knew all the words to say
Held the strings tied to my heart
Pulled then pushed away
My friends don't bring you up no more
I'm sure yours don't mention me
I remember how we were before
It don't feel like memories

Why can't I get over, over you?
Your love is a fire, still high on the fumes
I've done everything and all I can do
I'm still hung up on you, I'm still hung up
I'm still hung up on you
I'm still hung up on you
Why can't I get over, over you?
Your love is a fire, still high on the fumes
I've done everything and all I can do
I'm still hung up on you, I'm still hung up
I'm still hung up

Do you ever ask what if?
Do you almost call?
I'm not the only one who feels crazy
'Cause I still miss it all

Why can't I get over, over you?
Your love is a fire, still high on the fumes
I've done everything and all I can do
I'm still hung up on you, I'm still hung up on you

Bags underneath my eyes
All of these sleepless nights
Without you in my life
Nothing I haven't tried
To get you off my mind
There's no good reason why

I'm still hung up on you
I'm still hung up on you

Why can't I get over, over you?
Your love is a fire, still high on the fumes
I've done everything and all I can do
I'm still hung up on you, I'm still hung up
I'm still hung up
I'm still hung up on you
I'm still hung up
I'm still hung up on you
I'm still hung up on you
I'm still hung up on you
I'm still hung up on you
I'm still hung up on you
I'm still hung up
