

Just Like You

Tritonal

Why do you always gotta be right
Pissed off when you don't win a fight
Yeah I see it in your selfish eyes
But that's just my type

And I've been setting fires, setting fires
Yeah, you've been crossing lines
But you know that I like it
Maybe I'm just like you
Maybe I'm just like you

Hearts are made to break
People always change
But it's okay
'Cause we love the same

Maybe I'm just like you
Maybe you're like me too
Maybe you're like me too...

Always thinking you can change my mind
Pissed off when I can't win a fight
But I'm no good at compromise
Don't lie you like it

'Cause we've been setting fires, setting fires
Yeah, you've been crossing lines
But you know that I like it
Maybe I'm just like you
Maybe I'm just like you

Hearts are made to break
People always change
But it's okay
'Cause we love the same

Maybe I'm just like you
Maybe you're like me too
Maybe you're like me too...

Give in to me and I'll give into you
I'll give you all of me
If you give me all of you, yeah
Give in to me as I give into you
I'll give you all of me
'Cause I'm just like you too
Just like you

Maybe you're like me too
Just like you, just like you...
Yeah, yeah
