

Little Bit of Love

Tritonal

Love, love, love

You call me a psychopath
I call you a real class act
But don't take it personal (Ooh)
I'm never holding back
I'm sorry I'm built like that
What's wrong with emotional?

Ooh, why we fighting?
Ooh, when time is borrowed?
Ooh, so let's stop fighting
Let's get back to it tomorrow

I just need a little bit of love, love tonight
I just need a little bit of love, love tonight
And everything's fucked up
But let's pretend that it's alright
I just need a little bit of love, love tonight
I just need a little bit of love

Love, love, love
Little bit of, little bit of
I just need a little bit of love
(Love, give me your love)
Love, love, love
Little bit of love

I'm the protagonist
I'm not giving up on this
But can we just take a breath? (Oh, take a breath, yeah)
Everything you're feeling
I'll make you question it
You won't know what's coming next

Ooh, why we fighting?
Ooh, when time is borrowed?
Ooh, so let's stop fighting
Let's get back to it tomorrow

I just need a little bit of love, love tonight
I just need a little bit of love, love tonight
And everything's fucked up
But let's pretend that it's alright
I just need a little bit of love, love tonight
I just need a little bit of love

Love, love, love
Little bit of, little bit of
I just need a little bit of love, love tonight
I just need a little bit of love, love
Little bit of love
Just need a little bit of love, love, love
Yeah, a little bit of love, love, love

This kind of give and take is what's it all made of Until I get what's mine, no, I'm not giving up

I just need a little bit of love (Love, love, love)
Yeah, yeah, yeah
I just need a little bit of love, love (Give me that love)

I just need a little bit of love, love tonight (Love, love, love)
I just need a little bit of love, love tonight (Little bit of, little bit of
)
I just need a little bit of love, love tonight (Love, love, love)
I just need a little bit of love, love tonight (Little bit of, little bit of
)

I just need, I just need a little bit of love
Just a little bit of love
Oh, baby
Just a little bit of
Little bit of love
Just a little bit of love
Oh, baby
Just a little bit of
Little bit of love
