

Now Or Never

Tritonal

The walls are paper-thin, you're moving in
I can see right through somehow, it all makes sense
Me caving in, but I barely know you

I'd rather have one night,
Than nothing forever
Yeah, that would be alright, with me
It's now or never
I'd rather have one night,
Than nothing forever
Yeah, that would be alright, with me
It's now or never [x3]

Like Planets in the dark
We don't know how we got here in the sky
Like magnets torn apart,
You don't know why you come back every time

I'd rather have one night,
Than nothing forever
Yeah, that would be alright, with me
It's now or never
I'd rather have one night,
Than nothing forever
Yeah, that would be alright, with me
It's now or never [x3]
