

Something Beautiful

Tritonal

Caught in the eye of your hurricane, oh
Tied to the track of a speeding train, oh
I know that you could hurt me, but I
Feel a kind of safety inside
Here, in the eye of your hurricane, oh

Let's burn it and break it all down
Tonight

Yeah we all wanna hold something beautiful
Cut our hands on the rose, that's just how it goes
We dance between the darkness and the light
A symphony of colors that collide
Yeah, we all wanna hold something beautiful
Yeah, you're beautiful, beautiful

(Let's burn it and break it all down
Let's burn it and break it all down
Let's burn it and break it all down
Let's burn it and break it all down
Let's burn it and break it all down
Let's burn it and break it all down
Let's burn it and break it all down)

Pulled in the tide of your gravity
Drown in the love and it's killing me
I know that you could use me, but I
I just wanna know what it's like
Pulled in the tide of your gravity

I'm feeling the weight of your heart
Alive

Yeah we all wanna hold something beautiful
Cut our hands on the rose, that's just how it goes
We dance between the darkness and the light
A symphony of colors that collide
Yeah we all wanna hold something beautiful
Yeah, you're beautiful, beautiful

Yeah, you're beautiful, beautiful
Oh, something beautiful
