

Superhuman

Tritonal

Daylight
Holding on
Can I
Sink or swim
Cold night
On my own
Halo
Starts to dim

Oh
No way of knowing, no
No way of knowing, no
Oh
Let the weight of the Earth go

Always looking for a sweet escape
Always looking for a new direction
Always searching for a brighter day
Thought we wanted life to be perfection
Hey no no hey no no
Hey it's just a grand illusion
No matter what we'll still get through it
'Cause it turns out we're superhuman

Quiet
All the noise
Open
Up my heart
Push through
A little pain
To get to the deepest parts

Oh
No way of knowing, no
No way of knowing, no
Oh
Let the weight of the Earth go

Always looking for a sweet escape
Always looking for a new direction
Always searching for a brighter day
Thought we wanted life to be perfection
Hey no no hey no no
Hey it's just a grand illusion
No matter what we'll still get through it
'Cause it turns out we're superhuman

'Cause it turns out we're superhuman
'Cause it turns out we're superhuman
Superhuman
No matter what we'll still get through it
