

Worth It All

Tritonal

Why do we keep doing this
Falling in and falling out
I don't wanna ruin this
But I can't figure out

How we went from late night laughs to slamming doors
Talking for hours to just keeping score
I never wanted our love to turn into war

But you are you are you are
Worth it all, I can't deny it
You are you are you are Worth it all, so let's keep trying
To work through all of the tension and questioning where we both stand
Quit second guessing and give it a chance
'Cause you are you are you are
Worth it all
Worth it all
Worth it all

Worth it all
Worth it all

Worth it all
Worth it all
Worth it all

To work through all of the tension and questioning where we both stand
Quit second guessing and give it a chance
'Cause you are you are you are
Worth it all
Worth it all
Worth it all

Worth it all
Worth it all

Worth it all
Worth it all
Worth it all
