

You got to play it Cooler - you wake up in the morning and you're absolutely hanging over Cooler - your shoes don't fit and your hair is such a disgrace Cooler you're dozing off at the office Cooler - then you go sleeping sleeping in the elevator Cooler - be aware of making dog's ears on the files Cooler - you know boy, the insurance company must survive Cooler - now it's twelve o'clock
so welcome to the canteen Cooler - please eat fast, don't have a talk watch the watch, we're so cool absolutely cool brains out of plastic faces out of plastic hearts out of plastic souls out of plastic They're daughters like their mothers disturbed relationships Limitation
Imitation
Isolation
Refrigeration
You got to play it
Cooler - in the afternoon your head is shrinking Cooler - between Data Processing and ITT equipment Cooler - your vis à vis is braggin'
'bout her husband's income tax Cooler - she's always dressed in the latest style showing off their two-job life Cooler one holiday in summer one holiday in winter Cooler - you can't stand it anymore and you're absolutely hanging over overcooled overcooled...
