Ascendancy

Trivium

All this life shrouded in a veil Of deception in association But now I will witness thee With unblinding open eyes

Judas I bury you in your own blood You only held me down from what I was supposed to be Ascend above the ashes of the worlds I once knew

All this life shrouded in a veil Of deception in association But now I will witness thee With unblinding open eyes

Judas I bury you in your own blood You only held me down from what I was suppose to be Ascend above the ashes of the worlds I once knew Ascendancy is the only thing this will prove

Go!

I spread the fuel with fire Desire To incinerate all Behold I rise Phoenix, phoenix

Judas I bury you in your own blood
You only held me down from what I was supposed to be, was supposed to be Ascend above the ashes of the worlds I once knew
Ascendancy is the only thing this will prove
Ascendancy is the only thing this will prove
Ascendancy is the only thing this will prove
