

Bleed Into Me

Trivium

Bleed into me
An ounce of your empathy
Eyes lock, you can see
A ghost town, invisible city

Bleed!

Bleed into me
Those feelings you're harboring
The silence says it all
Tragedy, the look before the fall

Struggles and dreams mix into one
The grim rituals have only begun
No use in leaving
Now drift off before you are gone
Before you are gone

As it bleeds into me
Let it sink in for you
Tell them the story
Tell them the truth

Let it bleed into you

Bleed into you!

Bleed into me
A bit of your apathy
Cast aside, forget me
Another disappears in the city

Struggles and dreams mix into one
The grim rituals have only begun
No use in leaving
Now drift off before you are gone

Before you are gone

As it bleeds into me
Let it sink in for you
Tell them the story
Tell them the truth

Let it bleed into you

Falling down
Falling down

An ounce of your empathy
Struggles and dreams
They'll drift off before you are gone

As it bleeds into me
Let it sink in for you
Tell them the story
Tell them the truth

Let it bleed into you

Bleed into you!

Bleed into you!
