

You Look So Good

Trooper

It's a 3 AM rendezvous
At a little table for two
The camera zooms in on me and you
You're an actress in disgrace
I'm a famous flying ace
In some secret after hours place

And you look so good
Look so good tonight
You look so good, I'm blinded by your light
I wanna live my life more carefully
But you look so good
Look so good to me

We're not talking, but we both know
I've got my orders, you've got your show
Ten minutes and we gotta go

I'm a famous flying ace
You're an actress in disgrace
In some secret after hours place

And you look so good
Look so good tonight
You look so good, I'm blinded by your light
I wanna live my life more carefully
But you look so good
Look so good to me
