

Sister

Trophy Scars

This is all my love
As if you'd ever love me
As a sister, my love
Don't think you'd ever love me

All I wanted is you

A thousand miles apart
Mom and Dad have built and sold me
You're a piece of shit
Only now you try to save me

All I want is
All I needed is you
My Brother

Shake it down to the bottom of the glass
Whiskey stale stinking rotten
And you acting like a man
Yeah you f*cked up f*cking around
Then you f*cking left us
I've been pulling all the tricks

Can't forgive you how you left me

All I needed is you
Mommy's gone to hell, she's sucking on her brains
Caught a bullet in her mouth, she deserved it anyway
I may be a prostitute, but guess what? I'm not a slave
It's your story baby brother... gonna kill us either way

All I need is
Can't you forgive the truth

Put the barrel into my lips
Let me kiss it
Do you like it?
My baby boy, count down
Three, two, one
