

Hello Strawberry Skies

Trouble

There`s lonely people in distress hell is better, I confess all my dreams have been destroyed horse misused, eternal void so many names upon the wall purple curtain, funeral pall seems they were so sincere mercy blossom, future`s here

pleasant dreams for tired lives
where the world never dies don`t need a cross to hang around wings of envy, scenic sound all our lives we`ve been on the run inner freedom rising sun
