

Hunters Of Doom

Trouble

Now fallen angels rise in excommunication unsheath the swords and wield the shields above our battle cries Angel soldiers
Stand tall and fight
The wicked cannot hide from the hunters of doom

Specters embrace the dark, beckoning to draw us near Dig in your heels and pray for courage as you grip the steel Pray for courage
Prepare to die
It's down to fight or flight for the hunters of doom

All hope inside that was a flame now seems to flicker
The din of leather wings creeping down until all faith has gone

The end of time is here
Welcome to Armageddon In life or death I know that freedom waits in victory

On death we ride
All demons stand aside for the hunters
Prepare to die
The wicked cannot hide from the hunters of doom
