

Sucker

Trouble

I'm hearing what you're saying
Problem is I just don't care
I can see just what you're playing
I'm telling you, you should not dare

No, I'm not your sucker
Find someone else to be your fool

Now did you become the victim?
Was it when I could take no more?
You can sail in search of rainbows but you'll never touch the shore

No, I'm not your sucker
Find someone else to be your fool

No, I ain't no fool

Try and sell it to your minions, though they're few and far between I'll be telling it to the millions
Write to us from mediocrity

No, I'm not your sucker
Find someone else to be your fool

I ain't nobody's fool
