

Last Bloom

Trousdale

And so it was
As it always will be
Clear the mud
Trim the loose ends and leaves

The day will always come
When the cold has won
The colors don't shine
Like they used to

But when the last bloom falls
When the ending calls
You just cut where the first flower grew

So what it was
Will grow into something new