

Cake For Breakfast

Troy Cartwright

Damn, last night got away from us
Head hurts a little bit wakin' up 'cause...
Let it go, yeah, we let it
Baby, I don't regret it
It made me feel on top of the world
Lips wrapped up in a beautiful girl
The party ought to be over now
But I just keep thinkin' about

The way your dress was
Fallin' on the floor like red confetti
Lookin' like a Maybelline belle of the ball
Walkin' down the hall all hot and ready
Like, "Let's get reckless"
Stayin' up all night like we just turned twelve
Now we're layin' in, feelin' twenty-two
In our birthday suits, so we might as well
Eat cake for breakfast (Uh-uh, uh-uh)
Yeah, we might as well
Eat cake for breakfast (Uh-uh, uh-uh)

Girl, we got a reason to celebrate
'Cause last night was the best love we ever made
So let the OJ, champagne pop off
Here's to us rockin' our socks off
Little piece for you, little piece for me
Yeah, that's the only thing that can top off

The way your dress was
Fallin' on the floor like red confetti
Lookin' like a Maybelline belle of the ball
Walkin' down the hall all hot and ready
Like, "Let's get reckless"
Stayin' up all night like we just turned twelve
Now we're layin' in, feelin' twenty-two
In our birthday suits, so we might as well
Eat cake for breakfast (Uh-uh, uh-uh)
Yeah, we might as well
Eat cake for breakfast (Uh-uh, uh-uh)

Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh

Girl, we got a reason to celebrate
'Cause last night was the best love we ever made
The best love we ever made
The party started with...

The way your dress was (Fallin')
Fallin' on the floor like red confetti (Like red confetti)
Lookin' like a Maybelline belle of the ball
Walkin' down the hall all hot and ready
Like, "Let's get reckless"
Stayin' up all night like we just turned twelve
Now we're layin' in, feelin' twenty-two
In our birthday suits, so we might as well
Eat cake for breakfast (Uh-uh, uh-uh)

Yeah, we might as well

Eat cake for breakfast (Uh-uh, uh-uh, yeah)
