

How We Say Goodbye

Troy Cartwright

Shadows rise and shadows fall
Clothes are scattered down the hall
We're right back where we've already been There's nothin' left for me and you
So we do what we know to do
One last time, one more time again

You don't say that you love me
I don't say that I miss you
We don't care about tomorrow
You just need me to kiss you
This ain't just another find a little comfort on a lonely night
Yeah
This ain't a put it back together, what you say we give it one more t ry?
This is how we say goodbye

We did all the breakin' up
The fightin', cryin', and packed-up stuff
Now and then, at 1 AM, you let me in

You don't say that you love me
I don't say that I miss you
We don't care about tomorrow
You just need me to kiss you
This ain't just another find a little comfort on a lonely night
Yeah
This ain't a put it back together, what you say we give it one more t ry?
This is how we say goodbye

Mm, this is how we say goodbye

One last time, one more time again
You let me in

You don't say that you love me
I don't say that I miss you
We don't care about tomorrow
You just need me to kiss you
This ain't just another find a little comfort on a lonely night
Yeah
This ain't a put it back together, what you say we give it one more t ry?
This is how we say goodbye

Yeah, this is how we say goodbye
Mm, this is how we say goodbye
