could cry just thinkin about you

Troye Sivan

Now I'm knee-deep in this mess
I could cry just thinking about you
Every line I write is something about you
Every guy I want looks something just like you Every book I read I only read for you
Every art piece is just to remind you
I don't know who I am with, or without you
But I guess I'm bout to find out
I, I, I
```
