

Just One Minute

Troye Sivan

All it took
Was a second
Was a moment in your eyes
In a glance
How you beckoned
Now I've come to realise
Why don't we run away
(why don't we run away)
I need just one minute alone with you and the world would stop in a single moment
Just one minute alone with you
Feel the pressure drop as my heart's up on it
Just to feel you
(just to hold you close)
