

Disappear

True North

Might pass out right now
Whose house is this?
I'm feelin' hot and I can't come down
I'm a mile from the bathroom, I'm an inch from rock bottom
Running into the walls, I can't feel myself fallin'

When I hit the floor
Don't feel it anymore
I just wanna be far away from here
Make me disappear

Woke by myself
Whose bed is this?
Kick the window, I see myself out
I'm a mile from the red light, I dress as I run
Away from the vampires, they're out for my blood

When I hit the floor
Don't feel it anymore
I just wanna be far away from here
Make me disappear

I've always been alone
So I'm never comin' home
I just wanna be far away from here
Make me disappear

Might pass out right now
Whose house is this?
I'm feelin' hot and I won't come down

When I hit the floor
Don't feel it anymore
I just wanna be far away from here
Make me disappear

I've always been alone
So I'm never comin' home
I just wanna be far away from here
Make me disappear

Oh
Make me disappear
Oh, oh
Make me disappear
