

Not Alone

True North

It's nights like these
I struggle with coming to terms with
The difference is now I got all the time I need
It's nights like these
Something inside is telling me lie to you
It's how I know the truth about us

So call it closure
I'm trying to find the human that's inside of me
'Cause it's over
And I'm trying to remember who I was before
But I don't know how

'Cause you're not alone
You're not alone
You're not alone
You're not alone

It's nights like these
You won't find me waiting
For you to call, for you to call
How am I supposed to feel
When it's the person who I shouldn't regret
But it's the person who I shouldn't defend
It's how I know it's time to forget about you

Closure
I'm trying to find the human that's inside of me
'Cause it's over
And I'm trying to remember who I was before
But I don't know how

'Cause you're not alone
You're not alone
You're not alone
You're not alone

Piece me back to life
But I feel your ghost
You can stitch my body inside
But I won't be whole
'Cause you're not alone
You're not alone
You're not alone
You're not alone

It's nights like these
You won't find me waiting
For you to call
For you to call
