

Sidelines

True North

Digging deeper than before
Seeing life as so much more
Than every shadow and every figure
Find your light and what it's for

All the regrets and all the times
Led by loves and alibis
Disconnecting, each day straining, what I'm facing and I don't mind
Waiting just a little longer
Dreams are why I even bother
When your eyes first met mine

Keep your head held up high
Feet planted side by side
Life's just too precious to be on the sidelines
Just let go, I will too
I know what you've been through
Life's just too precious to be on the sidelines

Letting everything from here
Be as open and as clear
When we lost it, I couldn't help it
The fire's burning, just stays stagnant

And even if I were to try
We'd be together one last time

Where do we go from here?
I thought this was so clear
Where do we go from here?
Where do we go from here?
I thought this was so clear
Where do we go from here?

Where do we go from here?
I thought this was so clear
But now I'm lost and filled with fear
Where do we go from here?
I thought this was so clear
The world's spark is in your heart, my dear

Keep your head held up high
Feet planted side by side
Life's just too precious to be on the sidelines
Just let go, I will too
I know what you've been through
Life's just too precious to be on the sidelines
