'Tis the season to be wary
Stay in bed 'cause Mama's scary

'Tis the season to be wary

Stay in bed 'cause Mama's scary

'Tis the season to be wary
Stay in bed 'cause Mama's scary

I'm gonna tell you a bed time story
About two red eyes, eyes, eyes
Trouble ahead if you see them glowing
A threat to your life, life, life

There's a monster in the dark
Don't make noise she'll stop your heart
Mind the pitter patter of your feet
There's a curfew in effect
Every child that's out of bed
Will have to answer to Mama's teeth

Now come to Mama
It's passed your bed time
Now come to Mama
Can't say she won't bite
Looks like you made the naughty list
With Christmas coming soon
Now come to Mama
She's coming after you!

Hide and seek. Shut the door
Mama saw you. Mama knows!
Hide and seek. Shut the door
She's coming after you!
Hide and seek. Shut the door
Mama saw you. Mama knows!
Hide and seek. Shut the door
She's coming after you!

Might be tonight. It might be tomorrow
Mama waits for you, you, you
So stay in bed save yourself the sorrow
'Cause this tale is true, true, true

She is angry and she's strict
Do not meddle with her kids
She's one parent you don't wanna meet
Mama's scary when she plays
She won't let you get away
She already close...
'Cause she's me!

Now come to Mama
It's passed your bed time

Now come to Mama
Can't say I won't bite
Looks like you made the naughty list
With Christmas coming soon
Now come to Mama
I'm coming after you!

Hide and seek. Shut the door
Mama saw you. Mama knows!
Hide and seek. Shut the door
I'm coming after you!
Hide and seek. Shut the door
Mama saw you. Mama knows!
Hide and seek. Shut the door
I'm coming after you!
