

Destiny Screams

Tryhardninja

Daddyphatsnaps

There's a City
Where our soldiers battle to protect our home
But nothing lasts forever
Oh no

There is Justice
That waits inside the dark and the unknown
And we'll find the light together
Uh oh

Cause we're Guardians, until the end
Destiny screams, for my attention
Across the greatness of space
She knows what I need
My heart's a weapon,
Its beating drum will not be tamed

Destiny screams (Heyo!), Destiny screams (Heyo!), Destiny screams (Heyo!), D estiny screams!

There's no Mercy
When you're being hunted down by vengeful hands
We are Titans, on a warpath
My friend

No shelter
We are restless travelers, born to take a stand
Feel the raging energy calling us back

Cause we're Guardians, until the end
Destiny screams, for my attention
Across the greatness of space
She knows what I need
My heart's a weapon,
Its beating drum will not be tamed!

estiny screams!

War is playing her ghostly love song
Telling me to be strong
Destiny, she screams my name! I hear it!
War is starting
I hear the fight chant! (Hey! Hey!)
It's making my Blade Dance!
Destiny, she screams my name! I hear it!

I'm hearing the chant, it's calling my name!
And its telling me, Snaps, it's more than a game!
The Cabal, they have came!
They're aiming to maim and claim the light
With Gaul as the main Antagonist! Hunger
It's growing! It's Ravenous!
Taking the case of the Laminates Palpitant!
Hands are shaking! Guardian Catalyst

Holding our ground and manning the battlement!
Warlock or Titan or Hunter, we're under attack
And the brothers react with thunder!
We're banding as one intact
No wonder
We've sent every obstacle back
The numbers we're saved, incredible
Teamwork impeccable
Different elements blending a spectacle
Whether its blade or shield from the sentinel
Fighting continues! Our will? It is plentiful

Destiny screams, for my attention
Across the greatness of space!
She knows what I need
My heart's a weapon
Its beating drum will not be tamed!

estiny screams! (Heyo!) Destiny screams
