

I'm disconnected
I'm disconnected

We were always programmed for system failure
I used to be a perfect fit now I'm the stranger
I turned a blind eye
But I can't do that forever
I'm on the wrong side
And now
And now I feel it more than ever

Yeah
I'm disconnected
I'm cutting the thread
So this is the end
I am torn
I can't ignore
I'm disconnected
I'm disconnected

You made monsters that feed on innocence with my unknowing help
And now it chills me to the bone the way you look at them
I turned a blind eye
But I can't do that forever
You're on the wrong side
And now
We can't go down this path together

Yeah
I'm disconnected
I'm cutting the thread
So this is the end
I am torn
I can't ignore
I'm disconnected
I'm disconnected

When did our dream change?
I've gone astray
From who I was before
How did I end up
So far in the dark
Where nightmares are being born?
Monsters that we breed
Are running free
Now my heart is torn
I can't ignore
I'm disconnected
I'm disconnected
I'm disconnected
