

Don't Come Crying

Tryhardninja

Hey hey, now everyone we have a new guest!
There goes another one that I put to rest
Here in the underground, I have to confess
There's no place, oh-whoa, quite this dark, no-o whoa
But I'll be here with you, along for the ride
Where nightmares are all real, so try not to cry
Okay, I take it back, I really don't mind
No escape, oh-whoa, from your fate no-o whoa

Makes you wonder, doesn't it?
Which one of us, opposites?
Is the weak baby here?
I think it's pretty clear

So don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying, crying
Don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying, baby
Don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying, crying
Don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying when it hurts

Down down, below we go, so follow me quickly
This time I pull the strings, my puppet, how lovely
Hang onto every word, this plan is too easy
Watch it play, ay-yee-ay, here on the stage
Are you ready for my performance tonight?
Under the lights, under the lights, whoa, oh, oh, oh
Did you really think that I'd let you survive?
Another night, another night, no-oh-uh-oh

So don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying, crying
Don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying, baby
Don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying, crying
Don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying when it hurts

Oh you thought that you could control me?
Oh you thought I was yours to own me?
You can cry, but you listen closely
Baby I'm sorry, I'm not sorry!

Makes you wonder, doesn't it?
Which one of us, opposites?
Is the weak baby here?
I think it's pretty clear

So don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying, crying
Don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying, baby
Don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying, crying

Don't come crying to me
Don't come crying, don't come crying when it hurts
