

Dragonhearted

Tryhardninja

Lost but marching on - like we've always known the trail
Searching for our ending to the fairy tale

Sometimes even shooting stars
Find wishes that miss their marks
But when the night gets too dark
And the road home seems too far

We'll see the sun come up again
We will climb higher than we've been
We got a fire that burns within
We are the Dragonhearted
We are the Dragonhearted

Courage to stop a cannonball
Together we stand thirty feet tall
We got a fire that burns within
We are the Dragonhearted
We are the Dragonhearted

We are the Dragonhearted

Fearless we soar speeding arrows ricochet
Break free our hearts burn brighter than yesterday

And through the battles we wage
When our shields fall away
The armour cracks and breaks
If ever our torches fade

We'll see the sun come up again
We will climb higher than we've been
We got a fire that burns within
We are the Dragonhearted
We are the Dragonhearted

Courage to stop a cannonball
Together we stand thirty feet tall
We got a fire that burns within
We are the Dragonhearted
We are the Dragonhearted

Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
We are the Dragonhearted

Standing tall forever united
We are the Dragonhearted
We are the Dragonhearted
Oh-oh oh
We are the Dragonhearted

Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh

Oh oh, oh oh
We are the Dragonhearted
