

Dream No More

Tryhardninja

You're trapped inside the nightmare
That's floating in the sea
Where there's never enough
Never enough
Never enough to eat
Just meat and ceaseless hunger in a factory...
Where there's never enough
Never enough
Never enough to eat

Run, run, running
Through the dark
What are you hungry for?
Feed, feed, feed
The nightmare heart
Until you dream no more

Grow, grow, grow
Your appetite
Not what you were before...
Feed, feed, feed
The nightmare heart
Until you dream no more

Feeling cold inside
Can you hear me?
Not alone tonight
Now they're near me
I'm the lonely type
But I fear we
Lost for good this time
Thought I nearly...
Found myself but now I'm drowning
Candle lit, my heart is pounding
Gnomes around, it's astounding
Chilling screams get closer sounding
Living in a little nightmare yellow coated misery
An enemy that might scare breathing in the night air
Long arms reaching for me
Eyes stare down, slipping through the kitchen
Not a single life spared
Lady in my head, playing me for dead
Often think of every word I said
Filling me with dread
Twins are really coming for my head
Hanging by a thread, prison of the maw, no law
Little light to shed, run

Run, run, running
Through the dark
What are you hungry for?
Feed, feed, feed
The nightmare heart
Until you dream no more

Grow, grow, grow
Your appetite

Not what you were before...
The nightmare heart

You are all victims of gluttony
Now you got the taste for the recipe
So you dream no more
Dream no more
Bursting at the seams
Caught in a cycle, grotesque and strange
In a machine you can not satiate
So you dream no more
Dream no more
Bursting at the seams

Run, run, running
Through the dark
What are you hungry for?
Feed, feed, feed
The nightmare heart
Until you dream no more

Grow, grow, grow
Your appetite
Not what you were before...
Feed, feed, feed
The nightmare heart
