

Dream Your Dream

Tryhardninja

Hush now, drift off to sleep
Reality, a memory
Don't be scared of what you find
Yeah, it's all just in your mind
Monsters that live inside
Your head at night, they are alright
Cause they can never compare
To the ones that live outside

So dream, dream, dream your dream
Cause when you're awake, the nightmare awaits
So dream, dream, dream your dream
Cause when you're awake, the nightmare awaits
It's a fantasy, they'll be seeing you soon
Nowhere left to go, terrors keep breaking through
So dream, dream, dream your dream
Cause when you're awake, the nightmare will become the truth

Rows of teeth penetrate
There's no escape, the veil is raised
Every mistake visible
So was it me after all?
A music box that creaks
The melody brings solemn peace
But only for one more breath
The last one you might have left

So dream, dream, dream your dream
Cause when you're awake, the nightmare awaits
So dream, dream, dream your dream
Cause when you're awake, the nightmare awaits
It's a fantasy, they'll be seeing you soon
So dream, dream, dream your dream
Cause when you're awake, the nightmare will become the truth

The ticking clock breaks the spell with every beat
Illusion or not, you are safe for now, so dream
So dream your dream!
So dream your dream!

So dream, dream, dream your dream
Cause when you're awake, the nightmare awaits
So dream, dream, dream your dream
Cause when you're awake, the nightmare awaits
It's a fantasy, they'll be seeing you soon
So dream, dream, dream your dream
Cause when you're awake, the nightmare will become the truth
